A Thread of Grace Summary & Study Guide

A Thread of Grace (Random House, 2005) is a World War II thriller set in Northern Italy and features both the Italian resistance movement and the plight of Jewish refugees escaping Nazi persecution throughout Europe. Much of story is based on accounts by survivors from the period, when many Italian citizens allowed Jews to seek safe harbor in their farmlands, cities, and ports.

Mary Doria Russell - Wikipedia

A Thread of Grace told a different, lesser known story, about the humanity, generosity, kindness and courage of the people of the Italian countryside. It is a story not about monsters but about human beings.
