The Only Thing Worth Dying for : How Eleven Green Berets ...

One thing the American health-care system does not handle very well is death, though there are some encouraging signs that this could be on the verge of changing. What's missing from the conversation, as Atul Gawande and others have eloquently argued, is the deeply uncomfortable fact that there are things that can be worse than death: loss of dignity, loss of agency, or loss of a sense of ...
