The Order of Odd-Fish - Wikipedia

The Order of Odd Fish has so many great, hilarious scenes from when they hunt the Schwenk to the story of the apology gun but my favourite part has to be when Sefino confronts Chatterbox at the Eldritch Snitch and the crazy conversation on ascots. Sometimes I found it hard to relate to Jo, I think it was because she is younger than me and most of the books I read are about characters my age or ...

"The Order of Odd-Fish is a fun, funny story full of oddball characters and the best cockroach butler you will ever find in a book. It appears as though pages have been ripped from Roald Dahl and Lewis Carroll, twisted all up, and then bound together with Monty Python-esque decoration—a truly entertaining book." — Kern County Library

The Order of Odd-Fish

The Order of Odd-Fish is an absurdly funny book in which eggplants dance, giant cockroaches obsess over neckwear, wannabe villains sell their souls for barbecue-flavored potato chips, ostriches fly, and nefarious handymen adore avant-garde pies. In short, James Kennedy's debut novel is a strange and clever book, full of fantastic places and well-developed, complex characters. The book first ...

The Odd Fish are exactly what you think they would be, terribly odd. Odd in everything, in fact, including their topic of study, the way they talk to each other and dress, the house they live in, and even the servants are all giant cockroaches who act like pretentious British butlers. I recommend this to all readers 10+.
